

bFGF Solution, Human, Recombinant (154 a.a.), Animal-origin free

bFGF is a recombinant protein expressed by Corynebacterium glutamicum. This gram-positive bacteria does not produce toxins such as endotoxin. Therefore, it has been used for amino acid production for food and pharmaceutical industry for more than 50 years.

*Manufactured by AJINOMOTO CO., INC

Features;

- High quality bFGF designed for cell culture
- Endotoxin tested (below 1 EU/μg) / sterilized by filtration
- Ready-to-use liquid form
- Animal-origin free

Activin A Solution, Human, Recombinant

Activin A is an important protein on regenerative medicine research because of maintaining pluripotency of hPSCs and helping differentiation to cardiomyocyte. This product obtained written confirmation of raw material eligibility from the PMDA: the pharmaceutical regulatory and review agency of the Japanese Ministry of Health, Labor and Welfare.

*Manufactured by AJINOMOTO CO., INC

Features;

- Free from components of animal origin
- Frozen solution; easy to use
- High purity and activity
- High batch homogeneity
