

Before using this product, please read the Limited Research Use notice below:

InvivoGen's Cell Lines may only be used by the buyer for research purposes in its own facility and shall not be utilized for any commercial purpose without first obtaining a Commercial Use License from InvivoGen (see detailed Sales Terms & Conditions at <https://www.invivogen.com/terms-conditions>). Commercial purposes include screening, QC-related assays, drug development, provision of services, etc. The buyer cannot sell or transfer the Cell Lines to any transferees and CROs.

Purchase of the cell lines by a contract research organization to perform services is strictly prohibited without first obtaining a Commercial Use License from InvivoGen.

Purchase does not include any other right or license to use or otherwise exploit our Cell Lines. Any use of InvivoGen Cell Lines outside of the Sales Terms & Conditions requires additional rights from InvivoGen. For any questions related to additional rights, please contact the Out-Licensing Team at outlicensing@invivogen.com.
